The 1983 Milestone

Yearbook of
Governor Dummer Academy
Byfield, Massachusetts

Dedication

In 1972, a new headmaster took office at Governor Dummer Academy. He held great respect and admiration for its traditions, but he also had many dreams of the changes and improvements that could be made. Eleven years later, many of those dreams are realities.

He has been with Governor Dummer through a decade of growth and alteration; a decade which has seen the establishment of coeducation and a flourishing arts program. Through his continued efforts, the school's facilities have been considerably improved. Yet that is not for what he will be chiefly remembered.

The lasting impression that the students and alumni will carry is of a cheerful smile, tireless patience, an oft-visible presence at athletic events. He is a peaceful and kind man, who felt a deep concern for each and every student in his care. He had a difficult job, one that was not always well-understood. Yet he executed it in a way which commanded respect, and he never failed in his understanding of the student body. For that, for his unceasing effort and dedication, and especially for his deep commitment to the school and her students, we wish health and happiness in the years to come, and dedicate the 1983 Milestone to:

John Williams Ragle

Mr. Ragle at a talent show during the '70's: one of the many ways he contributed to the community.

You shall above all things be glad and young
For if you're young whatever life you wear
it will become you and if you
are glad Whatever's living will you
you must become

During the spring months as the weather warmed and the days sunnier, you probably realized you were seeing less and less of the seniors on campus. Had they decided to blow the spring term off and go to the beach? Of course not- the seniors were on spring term projects!! Projects ranged on subject and amount of time spent on them, but each senior participant learned new ideas and got to try some things that they hadn't had a chance to previously.

Where did everyone go? Well some people stayed on campus while others went as far as Boston or Maine. Here's what everyone did:

Will Adams	Intern with Representative Tucker
Phil Appleton	Study of distribution of fish in Parker River
John Borgman	Composing, studying, and recording music
Sarah Bradshaw	Early Intervention Center
Sarah Breed	Building and photographing a wooden boat
Arthur Cohen	Director of 1984
Chris Frangos	Composing, studying, and recording music
Drew Hoffman	Intern Advertising Agency
Elea Kemler	Children's Theater in Newburyport/Harbor School
Carol Krause	Montessori School/Kindercare
Amy Krukonis	Working with handicapped children
Fred Macdonald	Research at Sidney Farber Cancer Institute
Laurianne Nester	Working with Spanish speaking children and writing a Spanish reader
John Richards	Computerizing Auto Parts Store
Rebecca Riehl	Intern: Parker River Wildlife Refuge Station
Peter Ross	Intern: Newbury Police Department
Teresa Russo	Assisting physical therapist
Danielle Schwartz	Intern: Billy Goat Ltd.
Cord Shore	Intern: West Newton Probation Dept.
John Stahl	Intern: Development Office at Babson and G.D.A.
Wendy Stetson	Aid: Seaview Nursing Home
Sue Studley	Intern: Brookwood School
Mark Sullivan	Work on a novel
Lori Whitney	Intern: Harbor School
Hope Williams	Intern: Essex Greenbelt Association

Underclassmen

Juniors

On the playing field as well as on stage, juniors played a significant role in representing the school. this year's varsity teams were flooded with talented juniors displaying their skills and helping to maintain team unity. On stage, juniors were a common sight, as they obtained several lead roles and entertained the school with their musical talents.

The planning for this year's Junior Carnival took a while to get underway, but, led by Miss Letvinchuck, Class Advisor, the juniors united to produce a successful and fun day. The Carnival was backed by a raffle which literally filled the class's bank account. Because of this financial success, the rest of the Carnival was geared towards having fun instead of making money.

The Class of '84 again proved that a group of students with a variety of different talents and ideas could come together and get things done. The class, led by President Harry Taormina, Vice-President Brett Engel, Day Representative Christine Romboletti, Boarder Representative Hilary Seward, and Secretary-Treasurer Kristen MacKenzie, started the year off successfully. By late Fall, the class had collected about $1,500 through the sale of G.D.A. sweatshirts.

The juniors look on to next year with great enthusiasm and expectation. Those soon to be seniors will prove to be leaders in '84.

Although academically the class did not appear as strong as in the past, placing only two students, Kathleen Lambert and Henry Long on the High Honor Roll, as opposed to last year's eight, many of the students did achieve unusually high scores on the SATs. As a whole, the class seemed well prepared to begin the college struggle.

SPIRIT

Sophomores

The class of 1985 is filled with diverse talents. After having almost doubled in size since freshman year, the sophomore class is the largest in the school. Many students have excelled in various areas during the year: athletics, academics, and drama.

Class officers were Sam Blatchford, President; Alex Konovalck, Vice-President; Anna Hill, Boarding Student Representative; David Starensier, Day Student Representative; and Sean Mahoney, Secretary/Treasurer.

In academics, thirty-one students made the honor roll at least once. Eight sophomores achieved high honors. These students were Sue Edelstein, George Hasapidis, Jeff Kelly, Rob Lessard, Peter Quimby, Katrina Russo, Jeanne Smith, and Jon Shain.

Several students showed their talents by performing in the drama productions: Tartuffe, The Boyfriend, and 1984. Participants from the sophomore class were Chris Chance, Vicki DeLisle, Melissa Huffsmith, David Kagan, Kate Kaplan, Roslyn Pechet, Peter Quimby, Donna Stram, and Blake Underhill.

The sophomore class has many outstanding athletes. Anthony Fusco, Anna Hill, Alex Konovalchik, Nolden Johnson, and Curtis Scribner amassed three varsity letters each. Steve Barrett, Steve Bucknall, Tom DiNanno, Amy Hefford, Esmee Huggard, Meredith Lazo, Quinn Pollock, David Starensier, and Mike Terrile each played on two varsity teams. There were twenty-one other students who received single varsity letters.

The class of 1985 is well-rounded and contains many diverse and gifted students. The most outstanding feature of this class is its closeness and unity which will be further displayed in the years to come.

Freshmen

From the first day at the freshman picnic, I knew that it was going to be a great class. Although the attendance at the picnic was small, the kids seemed to be really nice.

Throughout the year the class, although timid at first, began to show some confidence under the leadership of President David Greenstein. He was ably assisted by the other class officers; Vice-President Hedi Dur, Secretary/ Treasurer Kirsten Flagg, Day Rep. Stefan Katrubes and Boarding Rep. Greg Harris.

The class was accepted fairly well by the rest of the school. With four freshmen on the High Honor Roll (Kim Mooney, Mark Thomson, Kelly Golden and Cressler Heasley) and thirteen on the Honor Roll, how could you not win a little respect?

It was success not only in academics, but also in sports. Rob Studley was awarded a varsity letter in all three seasons- soccer, hockey and lacrosse. Rob DeLena was able to make varsity cross country and varsity baseball. There were five freshmen on the women's varsity soccer team- Vanessa Hunt, Karen Tucker, Marie Sheffield, Monique Proule, and Liz Asadorian. Ann Pollock was on varsity lacrosse while Kelly Golden, Elysa Marden and Marie Donaldson were standouts in women's track.

In the Drama Department Mike Jasse did an excellent job in Tartuffe. In the winter musical, The Boyfriend, there were no freshmen on stage, but Eric Krukonis was behind the curtains playing the trumpet. Freshmen also contributed their musical talents to the Big Wind.

By 1986, this class should develop into a group of great leadership for the school. This year has been a good start.

Front row: G. Thompson, D. Chase, N. Valhouli, R. Stram, M. Staley, T. Sullivan, J. Gibbs, J. Aimone, M. Kagan, C. Ham, B. Turner, G. Ehrlich. Second row: Coach Moore, C. Valhouli, M. Leary, M. This year's varsity football team had a 2-5 record. Coach Rybicki called the season one-hundred percent successful. After all, he pointed out, it was mostly unlucky chances that brought them their losses, just as it was the lucky breaks that brought them their wins. The score at the end of the game is random, depending on everything from coaching to the wind. But there is another record that means more than any arbitrary number list - that is the record of the team's output, effort and spirit. In that, the team of 1982 gave one-hundred and fifty percent.

Coach Rybicki said that he had never been sorrier to see a season end. "Every game they played was a winning game," he said, "They played their hardest, even in pain or in bad weather. No matter what the conditions, or the outcome of the game, they kept their spirits up and kept trying; they never lost their sense of perspective or their sense of humor. What other team would've dared to dress up as chorus girls in yard markers?"

For many girls, the field hockey season started in late August. Both varsity and future varsity players piled into a van to make the 3 hour trip to Merestead Field Hockey camp. The girls return refreshed, and two weeks later joined the rest for pre-season '82.

Returning for the forward line were seniors Hope Williams, Sarah Breed, and Wendy Stetson. Betsy Tuthill and Kim D'Orazio, up from the J.V., proved to be valuable additions. Backing up the forward line were seniors Laurianne Nester, Becca Lapham, Sue Towler, and Sarah Bradshaw. A new addition, junior Lori Glidden, was cited for her aggressive play. The only sophomore rookie on the team, Dinah Daley was an inspiration for her joyful nature and precise stickwork. The one and only jungle woman, Amy Walsh always did a fantastic job.

Ms. Clark's never-ending praise and criticism encouraged us. Ms. Letvinchuk's fitness program made it impossible for anyone not to be in shape. Finally, the tunes and aerobic exercises for warm-ups boosted team spirit and tightened loose muscles.

Governor Dummer's cross-country team showed great drive and team spirit throughout this season. Each member worked not only for personal recognition but also for the success of the entire team.

The concern for one another was reflected in our friendly cheers and pats on the back. The practices would have seemed much longer without the support of the other teammates. An occasional practical joke helped break the tension before a difficult meet; for instance, we threw Mr. Abu in the pond the day before we competed against Thayer.

The few times we met stronger teams, we lost only by a small margin. Our personal records improved steadily over the entire season, a welcome reward for our aches and pains.

Our teams' relationship strengthened as the season progressed. We gained confidence as a result of our hard work. The spirit of the team was excellent, and being a part of it was a lot of fun.

This year's girl's varsity soccer team had real potential, yet undeveloped skills. Returning to the team were ten old players, led by captains Cathy Eveleth and Liz Higgins. Along with the veterans came seven rookies who strongly contributed to the team.

The girls did not win as many games as they would have liked. The opening game against Lawrence proved victorious. However, this win perhaps made the girls feel over-confident. After several consistent losses, they came back to score on St. Paul's, a team which had shut out all other opponents. The Governors kept them on their toes until the last second. Against Groton, on Parent's Day, the team again displayed enormous spirit along with the desire to win.

The team can only prosper in the future. This year's team could be considered a solid foundation on which to build for a better team in years to come. Much young talent was displayed, and promises to carry on to next year's team. We wish them luck!

The varsity men's soccer team of 1982 was loaded with talent and fully equipped with incredible endurance as a result of timed runs, indian runs, sprints, crazy legs, band leaders, jumping jacks, push-ups, ... and hard work.

The fullbacks, forever putting on those smelly yellow shirts, were made, with a little cement from Mr. Mulligan, into an almost impenetrable wall of defense. The tireless halfbacks used their aggressiveness to maintain control of the midfield. The opportunistic forwards with their precise shooting skills pounded the enemy net continually, and, for the sake of spirit, put a few in the net. But this team had some fun too; sometimes they went down to the J.V. field to show Heb and the gang some new drills ... Just for laughs they would sometimes have the J.V. up to their field and challenge them to a game. Taking it easy on them wasn't easy, especially when they were winning 2-0.

Despite all the hard running, the team had a great season, just as the 1983 team will.

The Governor Dummer women's varsity basketball team had a winning season in 1983. Coach Gosselin was both a coach and a friend, excited as we were when we won, rebuilding our morale when we lost. Each player put out maximum effort for a good season.

The whole team prepared mentally as well as physically for a game: making banners, listening to music, and preparing plays. On the court, each player had something to contribute to a smoothly unified team. Sarah Breed and Anna Hill racked up the points, as did Kris James on her outside shots. Karen Fasciano and Dede Daley were solid on defense, while Cathy Riley and Lori Glidden were always quick on the rebound. Betsy Tuthill moved the ball quickly, calling and executing good plays. Hank Friedman, the team's manager, helped out in practice and made sure that the games ran smoothly.

Some high points of the season included beating Groton by one point, and beating a hitherto undefeated Pingree. One of our best games was against Nobles, despite a 29-38 loss.

Congratulations to Coach Gosselin and to the whole varsity women's basketball team. It was a great season, and not only in the wins-losses column. This was a winning season for everyone, as a member of the team, and as an individual.

For the first time in many years, the winter track team has proved that quality, not quantity, is the prime ingredient for success. At first, the season's prospects seemed dim in view of the team's inexperience. However, led by three-year trackster and letter-winner Charlie Cashin, the sprinting crew began their quarter - and half mile-drills, and the distance runners set out on their five mile loops. Under Coach Eastman, the shot putters (affectionately dubbed the sweat family) began to improve, not only in distance, but in density. They weren't the only ones who sweated, however. All team member put out everything they had and more, and, as a result, did themselves proud at their meets.

Sweat family ... double digit men ... cut the mustard ... Twinkie of the Day award ... and the winner is ... Charlie! ... power boot at Andover and ISLs ... 7 mile run at the beach ... sandy hotdogs and hamburgers, oh yum! ... kill the dog ... lost and found shot put ... Weylus's ... go-fast candies ... Yes, coach, its szechaun ... No, coach, you don't have to try it ... quarter pounder cake ... the official sweat grunt ... winter track next year? you've got to be kidding!!

Governor Dummer's men's basketball team has come to be associated with victory over the past several years. This year's team did nothing to harm the tradition. Posting a 16-0 record, the "Ruling Governors" easily took the league championship. They entered the class A tournament, but were unfortunately overpowered by a more experienced Northfield-Mount Hermon.

Captain of the team was 4th year man André Lafleur, whose all-around ability was not appreciated by his opponents. André received the Andrew Navoni award, an award given to the one player in the league who has consistently shown the best sportsmanship. Sophomore Steve Bucknall also played a major role. Steve's inside play was a good complement to his ability to consistently shoot long jumps. Second year man Joe Bowman contributed greatly to the off-guard position. First year man John Gibbs filled in well at the power forward position, and small forwards Dave Carlson (recipient of the coach's award) and Paul Nardone filled in accordingly. Greg Ehrlich, Steve Shula, Jim Rose, and Chris Nesbit gave the team's front court support, while Dave Agger and Anthony Fusco gave the team depth at the guard positions.

With six players returning, next year's team should make its usually strong showing in the I.S.L. and beyond.

The success of this year's volleyball team was a result of good team players and great team unity. Under captain Sue Towler, they were determined to have a great season. This enthusiasm was evident in the practices. Esmee often led the team (willingly?) fully clothed into the showers. Studley kept up the morale with her . . . interesting . . . jokes. Page led the team in fingertip pushups (the fee for missed serves). However, the pushups and wallsits paid off against opponents. Setters Amy Welch and Laura controlled the ball for perfect setups. With Sue Fowler, who had a knack for spiking balls into opponets' faces, and Esmee, a distinct asset to next year's team, the spikes were often literally lethal. Kathy Lambert was also a great help with her much needed height. However, the shorter players added just as much to the success of the season. Cathy Eveleth excelled in saving low balls (often dusting the floor in the process). Danielle was the team's serving machine, and Amy Hefford, too, was strong in this area. Sue Edelstein's optimistic outlook was a great boost to team spirit. The team's greatest asset, however, was its ability to work smoothly as one unit. It was this that carried them on to win the league championship.

Coach Clark, Capt. and MVP Towler

With six returning players and five new additions, the 1982 volleyball season looked promising from the beginning. Although the new players did not have a great deal of experience, they did have quite a bit of raw talent. Starting off right away with tough practices and stairs, Coach Clark was looking for a winning season. The team got off to a good start by defeating Dana Hall by scores of 15-2 and 15-1. A similar performance gave them another win against Concord Academy. The third game, however was lost due to lack of unity on the floor and Lawrence's home crowd. With increased efforts, the Governors ran a string of eight straight wins before a close loss to B-B&N. Thus the season ended with a 9-2 record and a league leading tie with B-B&N.

The newly formed, eight team Association of Independent School Girls' Athletics provided the Red Team with its first tournament opportunity. The team won handily against Dana Hall, Milton and Chauncey Hall, but the big match was against B-B&N who were disposed of 15-4 and 15-11. There were many fine individual performances as well as great team play. Amy Welch and Laura Koffman shared setting duties, while Amy Hefford came through by serving with 95% success. Especially outstanding, as she was all season, Sue Towler demonstrated why she was chosen by Coach Clark as the team's MVP. She was strong throughout the season both in service and play as well as being a great leader as team captain.

Ending with a 13-2 overall mark, the season was outstanding in terms of performance, but also it was outstanding in terms of fun.

Hockey

Governor Dummer's Varsity Hockey team of 1982-83 established a high-water standard of play. The performance of these sixteen players placed them third in the league, flatly discrediting the pre-season projection of other coaches that G.D.A. would finish seventh, at best, in the eight team division.

The team's excellence was most clearly displayed by the MVP line of seniors: Chris Laganas, Dan McLaughlin, and Peter Riley — to date, the highest scoring line in G.D.A. history. The tenacity of "Chin", the aggressiveness of Dan, and the play-making ability of Peter contributed greatly to the play and helped set the tone of the team.

Certainly it was not without the Gold and Green lines that the senior Red line was able to lead the team to its 11-5-1 season. The team's Gold line was made up of David Wheeler, sure to produce the needed goal; Nolden Johnson, winner of the Coach's Award for exemplary play; and this year's only freshman, Rob Studley. Senior Mark Kagan and sophomores Pat Bennett and Steve Barrett of the Green line developed well their offensive play and defensive coverage. Also, Curt Scribner showed his versatility in being able to skate both as a defenseman and as a winger on the Gold line. The defensive play of senior defenseman Will Adams and Chris Frangos combined with the strong pairing of Ted Werner and John Hurley assured that these four could be depended upon. Senior goaltender Kevin Cryts' aggressiveness and poise was a reassurance to the whole team. Sophomore Quinn Pollock developed a confidence which will assure consistent play in the future. Managers Tim Maxfield and Joe DiNanno made the season run smoothly for all.

Next year's team, led by a few young but experienced players, will face the challenge of having to live up to what has been perhaps the most successful season of G.D.A. hockey. Coach Harrington will coach his twelfth season without the assistance of Coach Clark. It has been unofficially disclosed that a newly acquired puck machine will be Coach Clark's replacement, and it is expected that this newcomer will be able to receive verbal abuse quite favorably.

Hasapidis, C. Ginsberg, G. Warden, S. Fleming, M. Davis, D. Dow, R. Lapham, K. Golden, Coach Corcoran, Coach Clagett.

The cross-country ski team thrived this year, under coaches Ms. Corcoran and Mr. Clagett. They prepared for meets according to Mr. White's traditional dry-land training, including stretching and "fun Fridays".

After December, Mr. Welch took over for Mr. Clagett, bringing with him his enthusiasm and new ideas, such as jump-roping and ultimate frisbee. Anyone on the Olde Newbury golf course in the afternoon would have seen twenty-five people "snow-bounding", or running with poles only. As the season progressed, the air grew colder and fur caps appeared, but still the team was forced to continue with dry-land work-outs.

The first snow fell on January 15th. Luckily, it was necessary to cancel only two meets. For many, this was their first time on skis. In light of this inexperience, the team can be proud of their efforts. They skiied in all conditions, including rain, snow, and subzero cold. Confused starts, broken ski poles, lost mittens, and furious yells of "Track, track!" were integral parts of the season.

Although many seniors are leaving, the team will have more experience next year. With the help of the coaches, the team will continue to flourish, and hopefully repeat its successes of 1983.

Captains H. Williams, T. Malay, and B. Calder with Coach Welch.

With many returning lettermen, this year's team had a highly successful season. It all started with the holiday tournament. In thirteen weight classes, the Governors placed nine wrestlers. Gerry Tallman, Greg Skaff, Alex Konovalchik, and Brian O'Dell brought home championship awards. Although the team lost a heartbreaker to Milton, they fought back with a crucial win against the strong St. Paul's team, which was good enough to put G.D.A. in a triple tie for first place. However, the Graves-Kelsey tournament was a bit of a downer, as St. Paul's swept it with a record number of points.

Unquestionably, the high point of the season was the New England tournament, held at M.I.T. Coach Evans received the outstanding coaching award, just prior to the finals, during which Gerry Tallman, Greg Skaff, and Alex Cawley were crowned champions, and Andrew Webber took second. Taking thirds were Jim Tagg, Peter Judson, Fred Hare, and Alex Konovalchik. Amassing 80 points, the team bettered their nearest competitor by 35 points for the victory.

The seniors were praised by Coach Evans for great contributions to the team for the past two years. Co-captains Greg Skaff and Alex Cawley received the MVP honors. All the luck to next year's team led by co-captains Gerry Tallman and Brian O'Dell!

The G.D.A. golf program was very active this year with more candidates trying out for the sport than in the past few years. This year, coaching was handled by Mr. McDonnell and Mr. Glickstein.

The Varsity Golf team placed first in the I.S.L. with six victories and two losses. Captain and MVP Dan McLaughlin gave the team spirit and a veteran's confidence. The team placed third in the I.S.L. championship round at Concord Country Club. This year, they were edged out by Phillips Andover for the Witherspoon Cup.

This year's Varsity Lacrosse team was characterized by slow starts, muddy days, and the double scoring threat of Co-captains Chris Laganas and Dave Hoffman. Laganas and Hoffman were the first and third highest scorers respectively in New England Division I. Both were invited to play in the All-Star game at Northfield-Mt. Hermon, and Chris was named High School All-American. Chris also scored more points for the team this year than any other player in the history of Governor Dummer lacrosse. Hoffman moved from last year's midfield position to attack this year, and scored more points than any other player who has made that switch. As Co-captains, these two not only supplied many goals and assists, but also provided leadership and support for their teammates.

The season started off well with two easy wins over Lawrence and Rivers. At Rivers, Laganas set two G.D.A. records-most points in a game, 14, and most goals in a game with 10. Many times the team got off to a slow start at the beginning of the game and had to fight their way back from a point deficit. Despite this problem and injuries to several key members of the team, they ended with an even record of 7-7.

Coach Moonves and Coach Metz were unsure as to what to expect of 1983's Varsity Baseball team. It was young and inexperienced: ten of its fourteen members were underclassmen, and only four were returning lettermen. These were John Gibbs, Dave Starensier, Harry Taormina, and Kevin Cryts. Their experience provided the team with stability and leadership. Players up from the J.V. team were Steve Shula, Burke Leavitt, Chris Nesbit, Jeff Knight, Ron Liss, and Andy Gibbs. New students Tony Fusco, Mike Huggard, Rob Delanea, and Rob Turner proved to be valuable additions.

The team did manage to have a good season with a record of 6-9, but it was a hard battle all the way. Discouragingly, the team lost many of its games in the later, even in the last, inning. Often practices were concelled due to inclement weather, which hurt both hitting and fielding. However, out of this season's inexperience and difficulties came a much improved team. Next year's team will have the returning lettermen and the unity necessary to contend for the top places in the league.

Although the final record of 5-8-1 was not as good as in previous years, the 1983 Varsity Women's Lacrosse team possessed unity, spirit, enthusiasm, and plenty of potential. Every person worked well with the others to form a unit. There were no individuals, and spectators often commented on the fine display of team work they had witnessed. This team was definitely a comeback squad. Down at the half sometimes by six or seven goals, the team would pull through together, only time preventing them from winning. Fine leadership was displayed by tri-captains Becca Lapham, Hope Williams, and Wendy Stetson, who made the often monotonous practices, drills, and running fun with their humor:

Do you believe? . . . Anna-head to knee . . . How many different ways can you wear a pinny? . . . Diane-How's the bowling sister? . . . This year's Varsity Men's Tennis team hit a high point in the respect of having fun and telling horrible jokes. Unfortunately, however, the tennis wasn't quite as good. The team won only one match, that being against St. Sebastians.

One member, though, had an outstanding season. Captain Steve Nicholson, with a match record of 10-1-1, a set record of 21-3, and a third place in the New England Division I Independant School Invitational Tournament, was named the tennis MVP for the third straight year. Rounding out the rest of the team were Alex Cawley, Greg Menyhart, Tom Malay, Bob Brewer, Steve Barrett, Pierre Deller, and Chris Tauro. Best of luck to next year's team with four returning players.

Organizations

Did you know that there are forty-one clubs, organizations, and activities listed in the Guide issued by Mr. Glickstein?

Not everything goes as anticipated in hardly anything, but a good many of those organizations did enjoy a good and productive year. Of course, there were some things which succumbed to the pressures of require activities and other priorities.

This year the Milestone had more than its share of difficulties. Frequent intrusions on the A-period by a variety of distractions made the job of putting out the book very difficult. It was particularly difficult to take pictures of many of the organizations. Write-ups of group activities were hard to come by. There were instances of non-performance of duties which left the Editor crippled.

Athletic teams cannot win without a full commitment by every member of the team. Play productions are inferior unless cast and crew give their all. Governor Dummer has a history of performance at 110% on the fields, in the classrooms and in extra-curricular activities. This has not always been the case in the year 1982 - 1983.

In late August and early September, this final portion of the book to be assembled is the most difficult due to lack of materials. It is hoped that you will enjoy what there is here and if your favorite activity is not represented, attribute it to lack of commitment somewhere by someone.

Miracles really are only the result of extra-hard work. Go forward with determination and perform your own miracles. It takes only a modicum of talent and 110% commitment.

The Governor Dummer Chapter Of Cum Laude

The Governor Dummer Chapter of the Cum Laude Society received its charter on February 10, 1934. The purpose of the society is to promote scholarship and to recognize scholastic achievement. In the secondary schools its function is, therefore, comparable to that of the Phi Beta Kappa Society in colleges.

The by-laws of the society state that to be eligible for election a student must maintain a minimum standing of eighty percent during his senior year and must stand in the upper fifth of his class. A three-fourths vote of the faculty members is necessary for election; and the members are pledged to consider each candidate's record during the earlier years of his secondary school work, his diligence, particular abilities and deficiencies, and the nature and the number of courses upon which his average is based.

Tour Team

Head tour guides Sue Studley, Hope Williams, and Greg Menyhart

The Tour Team is designed to give prospective students a student's view of G.D.A. This goal was well met in '82-'83 under heads Greg Menyhart, Sue Studley, and Hope Williams. They did a superb job of juggling conflicting schedules and smoothing out the innumerable snags that inevitably arose. The tour-guides showed incredible willingness in sacrificing their free time, and always received visitors with enthusiasm and friendliness. Many guests have said that their student guides and hosts were a deciding factor in the decision to attend G.D.A. This organization will undoubtedly continue as successfully in years to come!

Varsity Club

All team captains are invited to join the Varsity Club and all varsity letter-winners are eligible to join. The activities of the club this year included running pep rallies and fund raising projects to benefit the school. Efforts to raise the level of general school spirit is also a priority goal.

As in any organization, there are the "doers" and the Varsity Club had those as follows: Becca Lapham, David Hoffman, Wendy Stetson, Tom Dust, Paul Bartholomew, Anna Hill, Meredith Lazo, Hank Friedman, Chris Laganis, Greg Skaff and Alex Cawley.

The presence of our Advisor, Mr. Mulligan, will be sorely missed next year. The return of a number of "doers", however, should carry the club's string of successes over until Mr. Mulligan's return.

The Arts

The Arts

The Arts Department at G.D.A. has, in recent years, taken great strides forward. Support has increased as student interest has, and facilities are rapidly improving. The wider range of options and opportunities are all greatly appreciated by the student body, and beyond doubt make G.D.A. a school of broader ideals and outlook.

Perhaps the most significant achievement in the area of the arts is the planned Arts Center. This will bring improved facilities and a new central location, rescuing the studio from the basement to which it has hitherto been relegated. Already this year the two new art instructors, Miss Corcoran and Mrs. Marculewicz, accomplished artists themselves, have brought new visions and new ideas, including a live model and a pottery class. This innovation, especially given the freedom of a new arts center, will undoubtedly produce spectacular results in future.

Always a popular class, photography, too, is flourishing this year. Miss Dudley's students, armed with cameras, are a familiar sight around campus, snapping pictures of scenes, games, and people, whether they like it or not.

The performing arts have especially increased in strength recently. The Friday night concerts have become a school-wide social event, featuring students' talent in dance, voice, and instrumental performance. The three dramatic performances are unquestionably highlights of each season, and participation in this area is increasing.

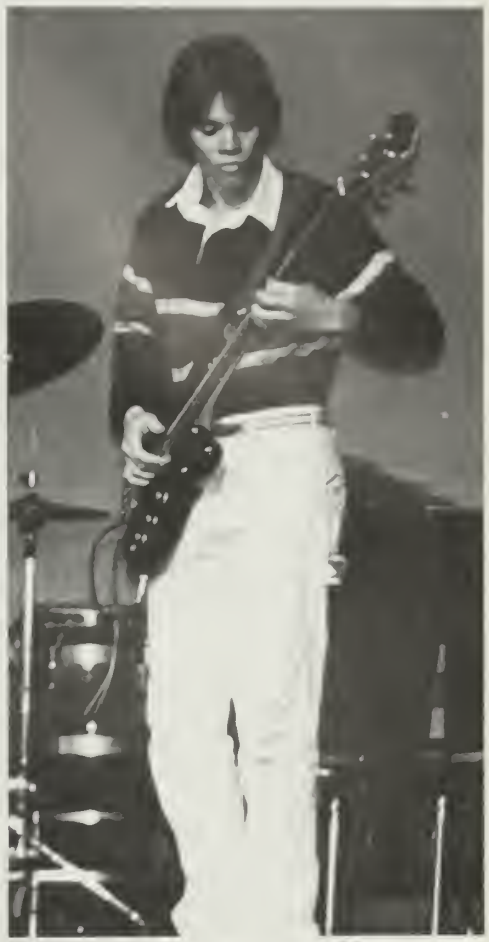
Indeed, the popularity of the dance program has almost overreached the capacity of the present facilities. With a new instructor, Ms.

Donna Roaf, and a new style, Luigi Jazz, this year's recital was unquestionably one of the best ever, and dance is now firmly established at G.D.A. 1982-83 saw another change in this area; the appearance of male dancers. This is a good sign that Governor Dummer is breaking away from old-fashioned traditions.

However, it is fast establishing new ones, and the excellence of the music department is one of them. Offering everything from classes in music theory to lessons in guitar, this department, too, is fast increasing in numbers of participants. Its two leaders, Ms. Julie Soloway and Mr. Christopher Stowens, have cultured much enjoyment and talent over the years, and have produced such excellent performing groups such as the Slight Breeze jazz band and the Academy Eight singers.

Last, but by no means least, is the Drama Department. Every year there are three full-scale productions: two plays and a winter musical. This year, the selections were Moliere's Tartuffe, the high-spirited The Boyfriend, and the student-directed spring play 1984. Mr. Laurence Tretler is in his second year as director and head of the department, and Mr. Reed is in charge of the Tech Crew.

The success of the arts at G.D.A. is mainly due to the enthusiasm, dedication, and hard work of all student participants and their respective leaders. Their efforts have made G.D.A. a more well-rounded school capable of producing more well-rounded students. They have provided, and will continue to provide, this community with all the magic and enjoyment of the arts.



Wow!!

I wish the tech crew would wake up!

Parents Day

"An E - isn't that funny!"

It's once again Parents Day, the day only freshmen look forward to because they have no conception of what really happens all day long. By 10:00 the parking lot is swamped with cars; you're worried about what the folks are going to say when they see the "U" you're getting in physics. Mom and Dad are anxious to see your report card while for some strange reason you're more interested in showing them the day-glow stars on the ceiling of your room. Could this be a distraction?

By six o'clock you have convinced your parents that you are truly dedicated to the "intellectual" aspects of G.D.A. and it is no great problem that you are flunking physics: after all, Einstein never made it through high school.

Case closed.

Monte Carlo

I'm just fine. Why do you ask?

Marie, why aren't you looking at your cards? Where are your cards?

Of course I'm a fair dealer. I'm a teacher. (We-ll)

Wait a minute! I have that card in my hand!!

"That's tough, pal! I feel for ya'. Remember, it wasn't my fault. I'm justa nice guy ... Hey, it musta been the little lady here."

Have you ever noticed what greed can do to a really nice guy?

Yummmmm!!

"Boy, this looks like fun!"

"You'll never hit it, kid."

Yeachhhh!!!!

"Yeow, that's COLD!!!"

"Nice shot, fella. I'll see you in my office tomorrow!"

Like, what's happ'nin'?

And there were a lot of other events, too. Like there was a big feast in the dining hall with the King and his Court. And how about THE INVITATIONAL. And all those fabulous performances put on by the singers, dancers, musicians, and photographers over in Thompson. The performance of Twelfth Night was better than studying and it was pretty good, too.

Don't forget some of those memorable dances put on by the Social Committee. Even a concert in French was different. And Lea's performance in Terezin. Some of the Humanities trips were excellent. Did you go to the Poetry Festival at Exeter or that great Arts Festival in Connecticutt where we were judged as fabulous? And Sonie Weitz told from her personal experience about the Holocaust.

Of course, the Alumni were back one Saturday. I wonder if I'll come back . . . I suspect I will. That was a great performance put on by the Dance Group in early March. Gosh, they have really improved in the years I've been here.

We'd all like to forget those exams at mid-year and those finals in June. Ugh, what an event they were. Some of us went to the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston to hear that lecture on Monetary Policy and the Economy or something like that. Hey, even that new program for reading and studying imported from England was useful to some people.

The Black Student Union had some good events like the Martin Luther King Service and those two guys they had come to speak on Career Days. And they had some good dances with other schools. Mr. Sumner put on some special meals which were a good change of pace. And, of course, there were those times where the whole school got together in groups to talk over our big hang-ups.

But the big event of the year is always the last one . . . Commencement. I never have understood why the beginning comes at the end.

Commencement

Winners Amy and Alex lead final trip around the Milestone.

Commencement

As we move into these last hours of the Academy year, culminating in an array of well-earned awards, I am always acutely aware that the distinction which accompanies an award depends not only upon the qualities of the winner, but just as much upon the strength of the competition - the merits of those who came close. In this year's class there are many whose qualities won them serious consideration though not, in the end, a prize itself. Because this has been true, each actual recipient deserves our heightened respect and admiration.

John W. Ragle, Headmaster

The Academy Prize

Upon the retirement of Headmaster Ted Eames in 1959 the underclassmen of the Academy endowed the already existing Academy Prize so that henceforth at each commencement it could be given "in honor of Edward W. and Eleanor K. Eames so that the qualtities they so deeply prized might be prized in turn by future and succeeding classes."

There are captains and there are captains - Some are elected because of their gifts as athletes, and if they lead at all, it is solely by example; some, unhappily, are elected because they are popular, not because of what they can or should do for the team; then there are those who have ability, if not gifts, who rise to the top of their sport by hard, often painful, effort, but who all the way along are concerned to help their teammates, to encourage, to build unity and spirit. When these qualities extend beyond a sport into the way in which an individual leads his life, then the community is enriched, indeed.

The winner of the Academy Prize tonight has displayed throughout his four years at Governor Dummer contagious interest and enthusiasm - in the words of one of his teachers, "he is a charming cheerer-upper" - he is a giver rather than a taker, and with all this he has humility.

For four years he has wrestled on the varsity. For the past two years while he has been a co-Captain, his teams have come together in a way that the uninitiated might not associate with what appears to be an individual sport. Last year they won the climactic end-of-season tournament for the first time in nineteen years. This year they won the New Englands. For his exemplary leadership and his contagious joie de vivre, the Academy Prize goes to

Alexander Packard Cawley

The Morse Flag

The Morse Flag was first awarded 70 years ago at the 150th Commencement of this school on June 9, 1913, and it has been awarded each year since that time to the senior whose record in all respects has met with the highest approval of the faculty. According to the trust established by the late Rev. Glenn Tilley Morse, a long-time friend and Trustee of the Academy, a new flag is provided each year in order that the old flag which has flown over the school during the past year may be given to a member of the graduating class.

She is a doer - but one comes upon her contributing quietly in a vast variety of enterprises. Four years a key member of the school chorus; four years a tour guide for the Admissions Office; three years a student tutor; inducted into the Cum Laude Society as a junior; the Governor Dummer Honor Society, recognizing leadership; the Community Service Program, where she was an organizer as a school aide; three years in the Red Key Society of student hosts and hostesses, and as a senior one of the most quietly effective co-Chairmen of Red Key in my eleven years; in the Bible Study Fellowship, and the Washington Workshop; a point-winner on this year's New England independent School women's championship track team, and one of the two "quarterbacks" on this year's championship volleyball team - these credentials are all real. They represent time and energy devoted, care bestowed, loyalty to friends and school. What's more, they have not interfered with attainment of a place among the top three scholars in her class, of recognition through a National Merit Letter of Commendation - or of admission to that venerable (even though a full six years junior to Governor Dummer Academy) an exalted institution of higher learning on the New Hampshire banks of the Connecticut River. The recipient of the Morse Flag for 1983 is

Amy Sue Welch

Thorndike Hilton Cup

The Thorndike Hilton Cup was established by the Class of 1919 in memory of their Classmate, Thorndike Hilton. It is awarded each year to the ranking scholar in the Senior Class. With this cup goes a silver medal.

Last year recognition as the ranking scholar in the Senior Class was earned by a young man who had excelled, as well, as a musician, a pianist. This year the palm is due to another young man, who for the past two years has had a lock on the top spot in his class. For this period he has an adjusted grade-point average of 4.2; considering that the Academy employs a 4 point scale, that is "not too shabby"!

It is gratifying when, as last year, the Thorndike-Hilton Cup winner offers more than one dimension. This year's recipient has displayed several. It goes without saying that he is a National Merit Finalist and a member of the Cum Laude Society; however, as Co-ordinator of the Student Tutoring Service he has displayed with calmness and warmth his interest in others. This same quality has been evident in track, where he has fallen just short of the school record in the pole vault, for this year the pole vaulters were essentially without a coach. Aaron assumed the responsibility and guided his fellow vaulters to one-two-three finishes in virtually every dual meet. Finally, his support brought a teammate into third place in this year's New England Interscholastic championships - one place behind himself.
